

iKey Medical Keyboard

Applications

For over 20 years, iKey has been designing and manufacturing keyboards and pointing devices specifically for infection control in medical environments. Our liquidproof keyboards feature low-profile keys that are easily disinfected with hospital cleaning solutions.

iKey products are often integrated into carts and retractable workstations used in hospitals, as well as in ORs, ICUs and patient rooms. You can also find them used in dental offices.

The superDimension inReach™ System - photo courtesy of superDimension.

Application photos on bottom left and top right courtesy of Ergotron.